

Explanations for parents of the French evaluation levels (elementary ILSS)

				Level 5
Level 1	Oral : Your child understands and uses memorized words and sentences. Reading : He/she recognises words learned in class and he/she is starting to read simple syllables. Writing : He/she legibly writes most letters. He/she reproduces or produces words, often making mistakes.	Level 2	Oral : Your child is able to express himself/herself in simple sentences, often making mistakes. Reading : He/she reads and understands simple sentences about known topics. Writing : He/she legibly writes, and puts spaces between words. He/she writes simple sentences, often making mistakes.	Level 3	Oral : Your child is able to discuss various topics, producing, more or less, clear simple sentences. Reading : He/she reads and understands increasingly more lengthy texts about generally known topics. Writing : He/she writes simple and well-structured sentences. He/she is starting to produce complex sentences, making mistakes.	Level 4	Oral : Your child expresses himself/herself on various topics, producing increasingly precise sentences. Reading : He/she reads and understands texts about increasingly various topics. Writing : He/she writes lengthier texts about familiar topics. He/she constructs complex sentences, often making mistakes.
				Oral : Your child expresses himself/herself with ease on various topics, producing messages with few or no mistakes. Reading : He/she reads and understands texts about various topics. Writing : He/she writes lengthier texts about various topics. He/she constructs complex and varied sentences.

Legend

A Exceeds requirements for the level B Clearly satisfies requirements for the level C Satisfies the minimum requirements for the level. D Does not satisfy requirements for the level.